

WITTY AND OTHERWISE.

Mrs. Quadran—"Mr. Rennet (coyly)—George, I have carefully considered your proposal of yesterday, and while I cannot give you the first love that your true worth demands, if you will accept my good will instead, I am yours."

Little Dick (who has come in unannounced)—"say, mamma, do I go with the good will of the business?"—Judge.

The best thing out—a conflagration—[Drake's Magazine.]

It is natural for a fellow to boil with rage when he gets fired.—[Binghamton Republican.]

Never propose to a girl with a hectic flush. She might go into a decline.—[Elmira Gazette.]

Rum is an enemy, but it does not follow that it should be "turned down."—[Lowell Courier.]

The man who never gives up misses the answers to some awfully good conundrums.—[Elmira Gazette.]

Totting—"Here's a story called 'The Politician's Conscience'." Dimping—"Short story, isn't it?"—[Epoch.]

You can't argue with a bigot without agreeing with him in thinking that you're a fool.—[Elmira Gazette.]

A Congressman may be a good ball player and yet not be able to catch the Speaker's eye.—[New York Journal.]

"She—"Was it a mercenary marriage?" He—"Yes; they were both too poor to stay engaged any longer."—[Life.]

Musical Note.—"How is Thomas doing in Chicago?" "First-class. They are beginning to call him Tommy."—[Puck.]

His desire.—Trotter—"I don't owe you $5 do I?" Barlow—"No." Trotter—"Well, I say, old man I'd like to."—[Judge.]

Who is it that takes something from something and yet leaves everything as he found it? The photographer.—[Danceville Breeze.]

"Are any of the colors discernible to the touch?" asked the school teacher. "I have often felt blue," replied the boy at the head of the class.

Mental subtlety.—On the steamer in mid-ocean—First Old Chappie—"Going across?" Second O. C.—"Yes, You?"—[The Jester.]

"So your son has been starring as an actor, Mr. Cashcounter?" "Yes." "Do tell me all about him. Who is supporting him?" "I am."—[Baltimore American.]

He loved the widow and he loved cigars; she hated them, though they were never so fine. When asked to marry, "If you give up your weeds," she answered, "I will gladly give up mine."—[New York Herald.]

A tired man. "Is he so lazy?" "Lazy! Lazy is no name for it. He is so confounded lazy that it tires him to keep up with the earth when it turns on its axis."—[Texas Siftings.]

Uncle. "What is your favorite dish, Karleche?" Karleche—"Sweet dumplings; for they always make me so fit that I can't go to school the day after."—[Ankdoten Bibliothek.]

"Happy new year Rambo! Have you sworn off again this year?" "I have, Baldwin, I have turned over a new leaf." "Hm! Better put in a book mark, Rambo."—[Chicago Tribune.]

Excited stranger. "Say! I lost a $20 gold piece along here somewhere. You haven't seen it have you?" Hungry Higgins—"D. I look like I'd feel dead late y?"—[Indianapolis Journal.]

Mrs. Henpeck—"Gracious can't you remember what it was I was going to tell you?" Henpeck—"No, my love." Mrs. Henpeck—"I declare, you grow more stupid every day."—[Truth.]

Keep a Diary.—Bridges—"Can you tell me any sure way to keep a diary?" Brooks—"Yes; put it in the lower left hand corner of your secretary and throw away the key."—[New York Herald.]

Wickwire.—"Young Bingley seems to carry a great deal of style. Wonder if he has any money back of him?" Yalsley—"Yes, away back. That is, he is always ahead of his income."—[Indianapolis Journal.]

Janitor (to artist returning from a vacation)—"There have been so many callers since you left that I have been obliged to wash the names from the slate twice to make room for others."—[Pileggiende Blattner.]

Deacon Jones—"But surely you believe in the existence of a personal devil?" Mrs. Nifty—"I believe there is a devil, but I don't see any need of being personal in one's remarks in regard to him."—[Boston Transcript.]

Man in wagon (who has bought an unsound horse from the Quaker)—"No I don't expect you to take him back. I only want you to lend me your hat and coat, so that I can sell him to somebody else."—[Harper's Weekly.]

Mr. Moreoff—"Well, my dear, how do you find the neighbors—sensible?" Mrs. Moreoff—"Very; three or four of them have sent in to ask if I would allow their children to use our piano to practice on."—[New York Weekly.]

REDUCED RATES.

Transportation to and from the World's Fair Exposition, both for visitors and exhibitors, will be as perfect as it is possible to make it, both in the matter of facilities and rates. Greatly reduced rates on all railroads and some of the steamship lines will prevail. Definite arrangements are yet to be perfected. Much attention is being given to the question of furnishing abundant facilities for reaching the grounds from all parts of Chicago, and it can be asserted that existing means, already extensive, will be increased so that a maximum of 400,000 a day can be carried to and from the grounds. For the transportation of exhibits, arrangements have already been made with nearly 500 railway and steamship lines, including all of the trunk roads and more important lines in the United States. Of these transportation lines, 417 have agreed to charge regular tariff rates on exhibits to the Exposition, and to return them to starting points free of charge, provided their ownership remains unchanged. Thirty-seven have agreed to charge half regular rates both ways, and thirty-three have agreed to transport them free both to and from the Exposition. The Atlantic Transport Line of Steamers, which runs freight steamships between London and New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, will make no charge on exhibits in either direction, except on such as, owing to their excessive size or weight, require extra help in handling. In such cases only the expense of the extra help will be charged. Foreign exhibits will be admitted free of all duty.

SORE THROAT

Bronchitis, colds, coughs, asthma, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Singers, actors, auctioneers, public speakers, clergymen, teachers, lecturers, and all who are liable to disorder of the vocal organs, find a sure remedy in this wonderful and well-known preparation. As an emergency medicine, in cases of croup, whooping cough, etc., it should be in every household.

"Two years ago I suffered severely from an attack of sore throat."

It seemed as if I could not survive, all the usual remedies proving of no avail. At last I thought of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking two bottles of this medicine I was restored to health.—Clas. Gambini, Smith's Ranch, Sonoma Co., Cal.

"There is nothing better for coughs than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I use no other preparation."—Amie S. Butler, Providence, R. I.

W. H. Graft & Co., Druggists, Carson, Iowa, certify that all throat and lung troubles are speedily

Cured By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It loads all others. In January, 1889, I was taken down with measles and scarlet fever, and exposing myself too soon, caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs. I was forced to take to my bed and was so ill that the doctors despaired of my recovery, supposing me to be in quick consumption. Change of climate was recommended, but I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and soon found relief. After using several bottles, I was cured, so that I am now as well and rugged as ever.—John Dillander, Cranesman of Steam Shovel, G. S. & S. F. R. R. Co., Justin, Texas.

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's oil, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp." Its marvelous light is purer and brighter than other softer than electric light and more cheerful than gas.

Look for this lamp. The Rochester. If the Rochester hasn't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Rochester Lamp Co., 12 Park Place, New York City.

To Advertisers

If you wish to advertise and need instruction, send one dollar for our "Book for Advertisers." A little study of that book will enable you to decide what you ought to do, and give an idea of the probable cost.

If you instruct us to place a certain amount of advertising for you in the way we think best, you should send what the cost will be, we will furnish the advertisement, and the plan—either or both, and submit them for your consideration, together with our bill for the service.

If you wish an advertisement prepared and a plan of advertising marked out; to tell what papers you should use, and what the cost will be, we will furnish the advertisement, and the plan—either or both, and submit them for your consideration, together with our bill for the service.

For preparing advertisements, electrotypers and estimates the advertiser pays us. For the expense of placing advertisements and watching the fulfillment of contracts we are paid by a commission allowed by the publisher of the paper in which the advertisement appears.

If you want to learn all the ins and outs of advertising without any cost or trouble, read "PAPERMAN'S" regularly, carefully, and studiously. It is issued weekly, $2 a year. If you have a complete catalogue of all newspapers, send $5 for the American Newspaper Directory.

For further information address GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 SPRUCE ST., NEW YORK.

GENERAL INFORMATION

50-CENTS-50

No book has ever had such sale in the United States as General Grant's Memoirs. Over 500,000 copies have been sold, and the homes of the rich, but the subscription price of $2.50 has placed it in the hands of millions of people in the United States who want them, and will jump at the opportunity to buy at the low figures here offered.

We will send you General Grant's Memoirs, publishers' original edition, best paper, cloth, even and gold binding, hitherto sold by subscription at $7.50.

For 50 cents! Absolutely 50 cents!

And absolutely a proposition such as has never been made in the history of book publishing. The two splendid volumes of Grant's Memoirs, of which 500,000 copies have already been sold—not a cheap edition, but the best—our 50 cents; $10.00 if you send your subscription to THE COCONINO WEEKLY SUN for one year, and also a subscription of $2.00 for the Cosmopolitan Magazine, the brightest and cheapest of the great illustrated monthlies, itself equal to the best $1.00 magazine.

The Cosmopolitan is enabled to make this offer because of the purchase of 500,000 copies at a price which even publishers would deem impossible, and with the idea of running up its circulation to half a million copies. By contract with the Cosmopolitan THE COCONINO WEEKLY SUN is enabled to offer its readers a share in the low price obtained through the largest purchase of books ever made in the history of the world.

If, however, you have Grant's books, the Cosmopolitan's offer will permit you to take instead:

General Sherman's Memoirs, 2 vols., sold by subscription for $5.00.

General Sheridan's Memoirs, 2 vols., sold by subscription for $5.00.

General McClellan's Memoirs, sold by subscription for $5.00.

General Lee's Memoirs, sold by subscription for $5.00.

They are bound in cloth, green and gold, in uniform style with Grant's Memoirs. The Cosmopolitan will give you a full year's postage prepaid, but the postage on the books, at the rate of 5 cents per ounce, must be remitted with the order for the best Memoirs, 95 cts.—48 cts.; Gen. Sherman's Memoirs, 95 cts.—48 cts.; Gen. Sheridan's Memoirs, 95 cts.—48 cts.; Gen. McClellan's Memoirs, 95 cts.—48 cts.; Gen. Lee's Memoirs, 95 cts.—48 cts.; or books can be sent by express at the expense of the subscriber.

Send at once $5 for year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan, $4 for year's subscription to THE COCONINO WEEKLY SUN in all-cloth, which will add postage on the particular set of Memoirs selected.

If you are not acquainted with the Magazine, send a postal card to the Cosmopolitan Madison Square, New York City, for free sample copy.
